汉语水平考试家长同意参考表

For students under the age 18 years old 低于 18 岁的学生必须填写此表

Edmonton Public Schools is accredited by the Chinese Ministry of Education as an official testing centre for the Youth Chinese Test (YCT) and Chinese Language Proficiency Test (HSK) for students under the age of 18 years old. These tests enable students to receive an internationally recognized certificate attesting to their proficiency in the Chinese language.

The YCT and HSK offer students an opportunity to challenge various levels of Chinese language competency. The YCT and HSK are available to all students who are enrolled in Edmonton Public schools' Chinese language courses. Results will be reported to the individual, the school, the school district and Confucius Institute.

The fall 2012 test information is below:

HSK: 8:30 am – 12:00 noon, Sunday, October 21, 2012
Confucius Institute in Edmonton
13750 Woodcroft Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta

Please return this form to the Confucius Institute in Edmonton with your application form by September 21, 2012

All Chinese language students are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to be recognized for their Mandarin language proficiency to be eligible for scholarships and camps available to participants.
