What is YCT

The YCT is abbreviation of Chinese Pinyin: zhōng xiǎo xué shēng hàn yǔ kǎoshì (中小学生汉语考试). YCT is a series of tests to assess the Chinese language proficiency of non-native Chinese language learners under the age of 15. Those who meet the examination requirements will earn a Youth Chinese Test Certificate.

Who should take the YCT?

YCT	Bilingual Program Grades	Chinese Language & Culture Grades	Others
Level 1	2	7	Suitable for: Students who have studied Chinese for roughly 40 hours and mastered about 80 characters.
Level 2	3	8	Suitable for: Students who have studied Chinese for roughly 80 hours and mastered about 150 characters.
Level 3	4-5	9	Suitable for : Students who have studied Chinese for roughly 150 hours and mastered about 300 characters.
Level 4	5-6	10	Suitable for : Students who have studied Chinese for more than 150 hours and mastered about 600 characters.

Why take the YCT

YCT Certification can be used:

- To gauge Chinese proficiency for school transfer or overseas to study.
- As a benchmark for educational and training institutions evaluating program effectiveness

Benefits of Second Language Learning

Students knowing more than one language improve their:

- Intellectual potential
- Scholastic achievement
- First language skills
- Ability to participate in more than one culture
- Credibility in the job market

Certificate

The certificate will be issued by Hanban if the student receives 120 or more out of 200 for YCT level 1, 2 and 3, and 180 or more out of 300 for level 4.

一级，二级和三级考试的考分达到120以上的学生将获得汉办颁发的证书。四级考试的考生获得180分的学生将获得证书。
