

Important Information on Remote HSK Exams

Exam Date: Saturday, October 31, 2020

Exam Time: 9 am (Level 2, 4, 6), 1:30 pm (Level 1, 3, 5)

Registration Deadline: October 15, 2020

Equipment and System Requirements:

- Desktop or laptop with minimum 0.3MP HD camera and software HSKClient for writing the exams
- Windows 7/8/10 operating system
- Minimum Screen Resolution: 1366x768
- Minimum Internet Speeds: 150 Kbps
- Smart phone, tablet or laptop with Zoom app for our teachers to supervise the exams (Zoom must be on all the time during the exams)
- Headphones or earbuds

How to download the HSKClient? (Please download HSKClient and test it before registration. Do not register if you can't pass the test. The registration fee won't be refunded if you fail to meet the requirements for the equipment and system.)

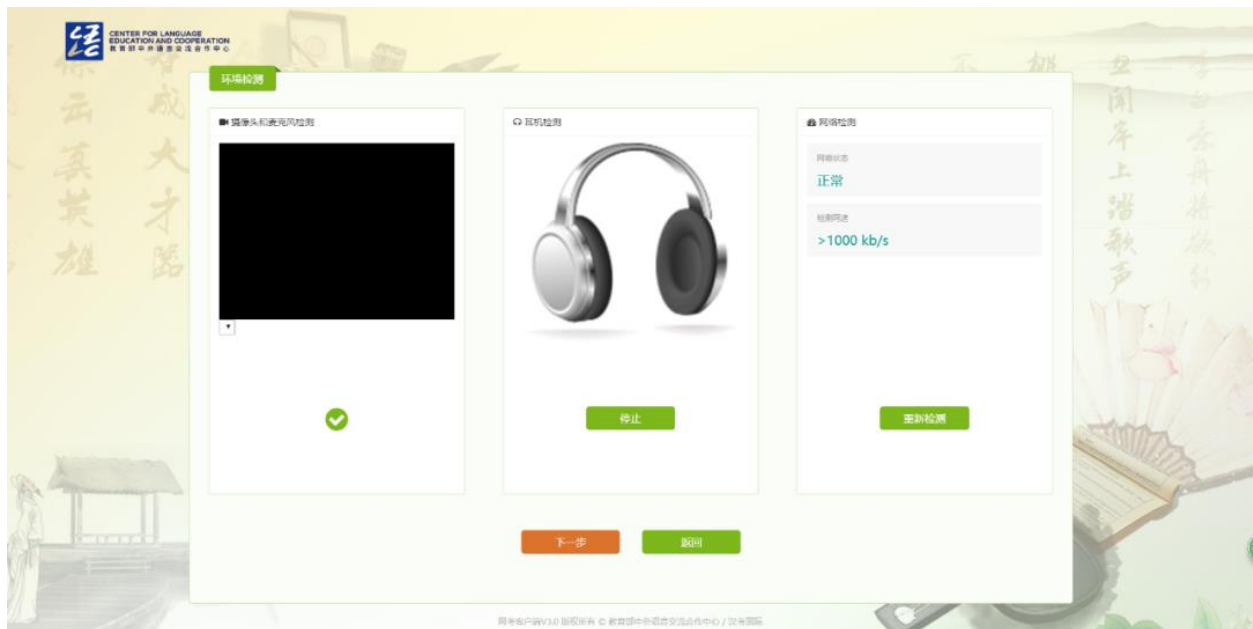

- Go to <https://test.chinesetest.cn:36165/client.html>.
- Download HSKClient.

The screenshot shows a webpage titled "文件下载中心 (Download Center)". It lists two items for download:

- 1. 考试客户端 (HSKClient)
HSKClient-Home20200518-CN.zip Date : 2020-05-18
注意: 下载完成后, 解压并运行 ExamClient.exe 即可。如果考试客户端打开失败, 请下载客户端依赖文件安装再试。
Note: After downloading, unzip and run ExamClient.exe. If the ExamClient fails to open, please download and install the client dependency file, and try again.
- 2. 考试客户端运行依赖文件 (HSKClient running dependency file)
 - Microsoft .Net Framework v4.5.2
Line 1 (Download from Microsoft) Line 2
 - Microsoft visual C++ 2015 Redistributable
Line 1 (Download from Microsoft) Line 2

- Extract the file.
- Run ExamClient.exe (the only one with green circle logo). You will see the following pages.

If you don't see the above pages, it means the ExamClient.exe doesn't work. Then you need to download the HSKClient running dependency file.

Testing before Exams

We will schedule a testing date after October 15, 2020 to make sure that our supervisors can see you and your surroundings via Zoom.

What to Do on Exam Date:

- Be ready for the exams 1 hour early in a quiet and bright room. No one else is allowed in the same room.
- Turn on Zoom, and put the device behind you. Make sure our supervisors can see you and your desktop or laptop all the time during the exam.
- No paper or any other materials are allowed.
- Our supervisors will check your ID and ticket.
- Our supervisors will send you access code.
- Run ExamClient.exe.
- Test your equipment.
- Start to write the exam.
- Submit after you finish the exams.

Report Certificates

The Chinese testing centre only issues E-score reports for the remote HSK exams. You can print it out after the score report is available online. If you want to order a paper certificate, you need to contact the Chinese Testing Centre and pay extra for it.
